RL Grime Debuts on Dance/Electronic Albums, Cash Cash Deposits Top Song Debut

By Gordon Murray | July 25, 2013 2:17 AM EDT

Fresh off a tour with Baauer, RL Grime makes his first appearance on the Billboard charts with his "High Beams" EP.

RL Grime, back from a touring stint with Baauer, enjoys his first Billboard chart action as his "High Beams" EP debuts at No. 8 on Dance/Electronic Albums with 2,000 units, according to Nielsen SoundScan. Grime, known for his remix of Kanye West's "Mercy," carries his unique trap/hip-hop/dance style throughout the five-track EP, out on A-Track's Pools' God.

Pet Shop Boys, who score their second No. 2 album in under a year on Dance/Electronic Albums with "Electric," escalate 31-25 on Dance/Club Songs with the Stuart Price-produced lead single, "Vocal" (remixed by Flahmob, Wava, Ivan Gomez & Nacho Chappo, among others). The duo's album also opens at No. 25 on the Billboard 200.

Electro-house group Cash Cash hooks up with Black Cards vocalist Bebe Rexha to the tune of 10,000 downloads for "Take Me Home," which is the hot shot Debut at No. 25 on Dance/Electronic Songs and starts at No. 15 on Dance/Electronic Digital Songs. A harder, festival-friendly remix by duo Alexa Guetta & Yan Kings aids sales for the group's first Billboard chart action in three years.

Booming electro-pop greets collide on the Cash Cash remix of Icona Pop's new single "All Night." The New York City duo, who are making big waves on their own with "Treat My Name," turn the breezy, follow-up to summer-sounding hit "I Like It" into a raging club monster by adding the BPM to nuclear and laying down some bone-rattling beats.

The transformation is a raging success. All the Scandinavian pop goodness of the original remains intact but also adds now have something new and mesoic to blast on their floors. Listen to the booming electro explosion after the jump.

Dancing Astronaut's five breakthrough artists for summer 2013

Some call it summer, others call it festival season, but regardless of which way you cut it, the best time of the year for dance music has arrived. For EDM, summer means outdoor parties, more nightclub shows per week than days, and an indescribable feeling that becomes anchored to each emotion while experiencing the music and its artists. The year's hottest season comes with its anthems and its superstars, allowing artists to jump tiers — either onto the scene from near obscurity, or to complete superstardom from any level of popularity. For summer 2013, Dancing Astronaut presents five artists that are bound to make their breakthrough.

Cash Cash – Roseland, New Jersey

American pop meets EDM group Cash Cash from Roseland, New Jersey are prime to takeover in 2013. Jean Paul Makhlof, Sam Frisch and Alex Makhlof started playing together in 2002 as The Consequence but it wasn't until 2008 when they changed their sound and name to Cash Cash before people really started to take notice.

The group released "Overtime" a massive electro-dance-pop track in November of last year and really announced themselves anew.

PREMIERE: Cash Cash – "Take Me Home"
POSTED BY KHAL ON JUNE 4, 2013

2012 saw this Jersey-trio Cash Cash have two singles signed to Spinnin' Records, but their 2013 is shaping up to be something special. On June 17, Big Beat is releasing "Take Me Home," a tune by the trio Cash Cash that's gotten a lot of recognition since they dropped it during a guest mix on Nicky Romero's Protocol Radio show, including spins from the mighty Hardwell. Tracks like this blend well with satisfying the mainstream/pop radio crowd will packing enough electro house "oomph" to get a push in the major EDM spots, which DAD imagines it will once it drops. And truthfully, for the EDM scene to prosper, you should expect to hear more tunes like this. Don't be afraid of a little pop in your lives.

Cash Cash is on a roll right now, as they've also reworked Nicky Romero's "Symphonica." If you were unfamiliar, remember where you heard them first.

A huge new release from New Jersey trio Cash Cash. "Take Me Home" is a progressive house track due for a June 25th release. Out on Big Beat Records, "Take Me Home" entails the use of powerful melodic vocals by Bebe Rexha and a haunting synth that builds to an anthemic drop. Featuring on Nicky Romero's Protocol Radio, and receiving major support from Hardwell, "Take Me Home" will be the summer hit for Cash Cash.

Cash Cash has been featured on 407 multiple times in the past with their remixes of Hardwell's "Take and Run", "Love, Passion and the Big Dipper", "Circles", "The Question", "Take Me Home" is already getting attention including that of Nicky Romero and Hardwell. This original electro house track is out on Big Beat, and is slated to be released on Nicky Romero's Protocol Radio Show during Cash Cash's guest mix. "Take Me Home" has a great groove and will be a great new track. "Take Me Home" will be released June 25th.

After making our breakthrough artists for summer 2013 list, Cash Cash proving us right. For their latest hit, the Jersey trio have tapped into a sour combines bubble gum pop with electronica bliss on "Take Me Home." With Rexha holding nothing back on the vocals and the boys carrying the beat-sunny melody, this is a windows down, volume up tune. Released with a remix from Alexa Guesta and Yan Kings that takes no prisoners, the track available now on Beatport.

Cash Cash is a trio whose name I'm hearing for the first time but whose tracks I've definitely heard before. They have remixed artist like Nicky Romero, Capital Cities, Stereo, Krewella and countless others. Both their remixes and original tracks have a really happy electro vibe to them that can easily make them dance floor staples. Their newest track "Take Me Home" which features Bebe Rexha on the vocals was featured on Nicky Romero's Protocol Radio mix last week. The track is a vividly driven progressive house track that will make anyone's hump day. "Take Me Home" is without a doubt going to be a summer favorite and its due on June 25th on Big Beat Records.

By DJ Ron Slomowicz

I will be honest, the first time I heard about Cash Cash was when I was rummaging through the mixes of DiscoBalls, trying to find a mix which didn't have a large dropout which sucked all the energy out of the dancefloor. Thank you, Cash Cash. Digging into their tracks, I found a mixed bag of commercial-leaning stuff (the 'obvious they were from New Jersey anthem "Like It Loud," a PSY-hook filled remix of British Justin Bieber-clone Conor Maynard's "Vegas Girl") and interesting ideas (the JUSTICE-influenced Loleata Holloway sample track "OverTime" and the boy-band sounding dubstep tribute "Michael Jackson"). For "Take Me Home," they've managed to combine the two extremes with a commercial Jordy Dazz returns after releasing "Jumpoff" on Smash the House records, this time with an electro treated version of Cash Cash's "Take Me Home." Keeping Bebe Rexha's sugary sweet dance pop vocals intact, Jordy dirties up the original's melodies into gritty synthetic growls. Picking Rexha's vocals in a bomb-out, electro-fied shell of Cash Cash's dance pop original, Dazz does well to re-define the track in an entirely new way.

Cash Cash feat. Bebe Rexha - Take Me Home (Caveat Remix) [Big Beat]

Most of you uplifting house-heads out there have likely heard the amazing Take Me Home by Cash Cash and Bebe Rexha. Great news for those of you who loved the track as much as we did—Big Beat is releasing a remix package on Aug. 26, featuring such heavy-hitting names as Feestopawl, Jordy Dazz, Chainsmokers, Fareoh, and Caveat. If you simply can't wait for a taste, we're premiering 18-year-old Caveat's remix here on LessThan3 today!

Caveat hails from San Diego, and has been making a name for himself over the past couple of years by remixing such big names as Skrillex, Bingo Players, and Dada Life, both unofficially and officially. The sound he employs in his reimagination of Take Me Home is a distinctly electro one, and is sure to incite fist-pumping and headbanging at many clubs and festivals. If you like Caveat's style, check out more of his music on his SoundCloud.

The sugar-spangled, EDM-pop of rising New York act Cash Cash seems destined to hit the big time. Representative of a sound which is currently sweeping the U.S. club scene, as well as parts of Europe, the trio are well-placed to enjoy more than their fair share of success, perhaps having picked up some tips from newfound pals like Nicky Romero and Hardwell.

[Exclusive] Whomping Stereo Interview: Cash Cash

by PAUL ROBARIO Jul 29, 2013 - 5:47 AM

Rookies turned DJ/Producers Cash Cash who gained fame in the Electronic music arena for their amazing remixes and original productions like their track Michael Jackson which came out on Spinnin Records or their massive remix of Krewella's 'Alive' showing the world they know what they are doing. About 2 weeks ago they took the time to do an exclusive interview with Whomping Stereo where we talk about their upcoming releases, their collaborations, and talk about turtles. WHOMP!

Within the EDM scene it's extremely rare to find individuals with as rich of a musical background as Cash Cash. Cash Cash burst onto the music scene in the 2008 as an "electro" group. From the very beginning, they quickly amassed a large fan following putting on over 15 full US tours as well as a handful of overseas tours under their own name. They've produced, mixed, & mastered all their own music at their home studio since their start giving them a solid foundation. Over time, the group began to evolve becoming an EDM electro group and a force to be reckoned with in the EDM universe.

Once Cash Cash decided to immerse themselves in electronic music, they began producing a variety of official mixes and tracks that quickly rose in popularity, but it was perhaps their track "Michael Jackson" that demonstrated just how great this group is. Since the release of "Michael Jackson", Cash Cash has gone on to work with Big Beat records and has produced remixes and received support from major artists including Nicky Romero, Krewella and Hardwell. Recently, Cash Cash co-produced "Live for the Night" alongside Krewella, and they've been working extremely hard to release more new material in the near future. Cash Cash was nice enough to do an exclusive interview with OTB and allow all of us a little glimpse inside the world of Cash Cash. Check out what they had to say below.

"Representative of a sound which is currently sweeping the U.S. club scene... the trio are well-placed to enjoy more than their fair share of success"

DJ/Producer trio, Cash Cash, is back with more big news for their smash hit "Take Me Home" featuring Bebe Rexha, this time in the form of an original lyric video. The video takes you on an interactive tour through New York City with the bubbly track serving as the soundtrack to a girl's tour through NYC... or what ends as an adventure to clearly take a guy home - pun intended. Either way, we love the song and love the guys of Cash Cash. Feel free to sing-along to the video, the tune is catchy with the added perk that the lyrics are provided.

Speaking of New York City- this weekend if you happen to find yourselves in the city that never sleeps, the New Jersey natives will be playing a show at NYC hotspot, Finale. Revered as one of the city's best new electronic music spots, it should be a great show, so be sure to check out the guys this Saturday, July 27th.

- White Raver Rafting

"Take Me Home' instills the use of powerful melodic vocals by Bebe Rexha and a mounting synth that builds to an anthemic drop."

- Elektro

"Cash Cash is ready to dive into the EDM stratosphere with their new single "Take Me Home"

- Idolator

"With their ground-breaking remixes and electrifying originals, EDM's Jersey Boys, otherwise known as Cash Cash, light up the scene with ...their new single 'Take Me Home'."

- VIBE

"They've produced, mixed, & mastered all their own music ...giving them a solid foundation. Over time, the group began to evolve becoming an EDM electro group and a force to reckon within the EDM universe."

- Only the Beat

"As expected, the boys run the full gamut of genres, seamlessly blending progressive, electro, and dubstep to create a first episode that will certainly leave you wanting more. "

- Earmilk

"After making our breakthrough artists for summer 2013 list, Cash Cash just keep proving us right."
